If you're an Android user, or if you're an iPhone user who wants to videochat with an Android user, then check out Google Duo! It's as easy as making a phone call. Even if you don't have a Google account, you can use Google Duo.

Google Duo is a cross-platform video-calling application available for both Android and Apple phones & tablets. Google Duo is also an option for videochatting on both PC and Mac computers.

Rest assured that Google Duo videochats are encrypted for security.

Below is some basic information on Google Duo.

- General introduction: Google provides an introduction here, and this article also provides a useful overview.
- Set up instructions: This page provides step-by-step instructions for setting up Google Duo on your smartphone or tablet.
- Group calls: If you'd like to chat with more than one person, read these instructions for group calls.

If you'd like assistance learning how to set up and use Google Duo, request a technology volunteer by emailing info@ashbyvillage.org or calling (510) 204-9200.
